Joseph (Joe) Kirk

04th July 2010

Being born into a farming family I was used to animals all my life. I hold various offices in breed clubs and societies. I am an honorary life member and member of An Ard Chomhairle in the Irish Kennel Club, a member of G.B. Kennel Club and life member of the Scottish Kennel Club.

My first dog was a Fox Terrier followed by a G.S.D. After studying in England I returned home in 1960. I purchased a Rough Collie which I registered as Laddie of Lisnasharragh. Laddie won at 11 months old with Best Of Breed at the St Patricks Day show, going on to win at other championship shows. He won all the male trophies in the Irish Collie Club and became an Irish Champion in partnership with my wife.

I changed my prefix to 'Cregagh' and in 1968 added Shetland Sheepdogs, and later, Bearded Collies to the kennels. We made up champions in all three breeds, and owned the first Collie to win Best In Show at an all breed championship show. We also had the distinction for our Collie GB & IR Ch Cregagh Henry Higgins to win Best In Show at St Patricks Day all breed show, the only Collie ever to hold this award. We gained many best in breeds and best in shows with our Collies, Shetland Sheepdogs and Bearded Collies. We made up many champions and international champions in these three breeds.

We are delighted to have Joe judge our 30th Championship Show.
