Our judge: Mr. Bent Brohus Christiansen

A little about me: First off all it's my birthday the 15th of July. On that day I will be 57.

I have had ST. Bernard since I meet my wife Ane 32 years ago.

We received our kennel name, Zoomorf's, nearly twenty years ago.

In our c-litter we had two WUSB winners in 2002 Zomorf.s Cæsar and Zoomorf's Cleo.

Later we have had 4 WUSB winners. And we have also won the breeding class three times.

We have had approximately 10-12 international champion owned by us, or dogs from us. And off course a lot of champions.

At the moment we have 7 grown up St. Bernards and two puppies from our latest L-litter.

We also have three Welsh Corgi Cardigans.

I'm looking very much forward to come to Ireland and judge your St. Bernards"

Bent Brohus Christiansen

Litter Warning: It has come to our notice in recent years, that a considerable amount of litter is left behind by competitors, consisting mainly of dog hair following grooming. Please facilitate the Committee by cleaning up after you, so please bring along a plastic bag in your grooming kit. This is most important as dog show venues are becoming increasingly difficult to obtain.

Attention New Exhibitors

We would like to encourage the members to exhibit their Saints and make it a very successful day. In order to facilitate members who have never shown before now, or members who feel that they would benefit by instruction there will be an experienced person present on the day of the show who will give assistance to beginners on showing their Saint. This will take place at 12.30 am. before the commencement of the judging.

So members please do attend and support your Championship Show.

It is a most enjoyable day out for the family and Saints.
