REMEMBER

- Sportsmen respect the history, traditions and integrity of the sport of purebred dogs.
- Sportsmen commit themselves to values of fair play, honesty, courtesy, and vigorous competition, as well as winning and losing with grace.
- Sportsmen refuse to compromise their commitment and obligation to the sport of purebred dogs by injecting personal advantage or consideration into their decisions or behaviour.
- The sportsman judge judges only on the merits of the dogs and considers no other factors.
- The sportsman judge or exhibitor accepts constructive criticism.
- The sportsman exhibitor declines to enter or exhibit under a judge where it might reasonably appear that the judge's placements could be based on something other than the merits of the dogs.
- The sportsman exhibitor refuses to compromise the impartiality of a judge.
- The sportsman respects the Irish Kennel Club bye-laws, rules, regulations and policies governing the sport of purebred dogs.
- Sportsmen find that vigorous competition and civility are not inconsistent and are able to appreciate the merit of competition and the effort of competitors.
- Sportsmen welcome, encourage and support newcomers to the sport.
- Sportsmen will deal fairly with all those who trade with them.
- Sportsmen are willing to share honest and open appraisals of both the strengths and weaknesses of their breeding stock.
- Sportsmen spurn any opportunity to take personal advantage of positions offered or bestowed upon them.
- Sportsmen always consider as paramount the welfare of their dog.
- Sportsmen refuse to embarrass the the sport, the Irish Kennel Club or themselves while taking part in the sport.

GREEN STARS

- All Class winners with Excellent grade and in the case of Puppies Very Promising compete for the Green Star or Reserve Green Star
- If an Excellent grade is awarded the Green Star must also be awarded, this grade states the dog is of Champion Quality (i.e. cannot be withheld.)
- If the judge does not wish to award the Green Star then the judge SHOULD NOT award an Excellent grade.
- Puppies graded Very Promising may be awarded the Green Star, this is at the discretion of the judge whether he/she awards it or not.

NB: Gradings/Placings

- Dogs for assessment should be lined up in numerical order.
- All Dogs must be graded before the placings are awarded.
- One of the Stewards should hand out the Grading Cards. This can be done as each dog is assessed or before the placings are made.
- Only exhibits graded Excellent or Very Good can be placed in a class (for Puppies (6 to 12 mths) Promising/Very promising).
- Dogs must be placed left to right, first to fourth, in clear view to Spectators.
- Placing in Reverse Order is NOT ALLOWED in breed judging

Best Puppy In Breed

Best Puppy is awarded after Best of Breed and is confined to the Puppy Class Winners that have been Graded Very Promising

Definitions of gradings

EXCELLENT - Whose merits in structure and conformation are such that it can be considered an excellent specimen of the breed and of Champion quality.

VERY GOOD - Whose merits in structure and conformation are such that it can be considered a very good specimen of the breed.

GOOD - Whose merits in structure and conformation are such that it can be considered a good specimen of the breed.
