Introducing our judge

John Eugene Madden (Kennel name 'Madragorm')

John has spent most of his life involved in the Canine World. Starting with working terriers in the early 1970s he established his Kerry Blue show kennel 'Madragorm' (meaning blue dog in Irish} in 1978. He has bred and shown many Kerries of a high quality over the years and has won with them at the highest level. Over the years he bred and campaigned many other breeds to 'champion status'.

From the commencement of his judging career in 1980 he has developed a reputation for knowledge and fairness and is now an IKC/FCI Judge for groups 3, 5, 6 and 10 and has judged consistently internationally awarding Green Stars, CACIBs, CAC's and CCs.

John is a true 'dog man' and we are delighted to have such a committed Kerry Blue man to judge our show. On receiving the invitation John said...

'I consider it a great honour to have been invited to judge the Centenary Dublin Irish Blue Terrier Club show and look forward to a wonderful occasion sharing our passion for our wonderful breed'.
