Introducing our judges

Nikki Hughes Ruigrok (Wexford)

Former Show Secretary of the Irish Gundog Field And Show Society , we are delighted to welcome Nikki to judge our retriever breeds. Nikki is a gundog specialist and an FCI Best In show judge and has also awards CCs.

Sandrine Welele from the OF SWEET EYES kennel bought her first yellow labrador in 1995. I have some beauty champions titles of different countries, but also working titles. All my dogs have their working proof and some made good job at field trials. It's very important for me to keep the hunting qualities for our retrievers. I owned some goldens also. I judge since 2020. I had the honour to judge at the French Retriever Club Show in 2021, show where I won the CC several times with my own dogs. I very honoured, happy and grateful to judge and to meet new nice persons at the Irish gundog show.

Alenka Pokorn grew up with English Cockers and German Hunting terries. My father was a Vet technician and later a teacher of Biology. When i was 10 i saved up for my first dog an Irish setter. My prefix is M'Eudail which in gaelic means my darling. My other breeds during the years were Gordon setters, Golden Retrivers and Australian Shepherds. We are currently awaiting a Lagotto puppy. I first became a judge in 1988. At this moment i can judge FCI groups 1, 7, 8, 9 and 10. I have served on the committe of Slovenian Retriever Club and have been in charge of breeding committe for quite a few years.

ALICIA CASTRO. I had my first pedigree cocker in 1984, starting very soon to enter it in shows and getting involved in this fascinating world. I share with my husband José

Ramón Guillamón the kennel name Falstack, owning and showing Airedale Terriers, Belgian Sheperds (Tervueren and Malinois), Curly C. Retrievers and, of course, Cocker Spaniels (English). Owner of fifteen spanish champions bred at Falstack home and of another seven imported spanish champions. It is a great pride for me to be the breeder and owner of the Record de la Raza (Top Winnig ever) cocker in Spain, the black bitch Falstack Magenta. I started stewarding in 1989, judging Open Shows in 1998, championship level Shows in 2002, approved to International Shows in 2004 and whole FCI 8th group in the year 2009. Member of the comittee and later secretary for several years of the Sociedad Canina de Alicante and with large experience at runnig dog shows, currently I am founding member and secretary of the Alianza de Spaniels. I have judged numberless shows in Spain and, abroad, in Finland, Ireland, Belgium, Sweden, Germany and Norway, being pleased to have the oppportunity of sharing again the weekend with the Irish fanciers.
